Expression of Interest (EOI)

CRANAplus Membership Nursing & Midwifery Roundtable

Type of Opportunity	Special Interests	Requirements	Commitment
CRANAplus nursing and midwifery Members who are working in (or have very recently worked in) a rural or remote location.	Have a passion for advocating and supporting the rural and remote nursing and midwifery workforce.	Have good connections/relationships with rural and remote stakeholders or clinicians within your state/territory.	2 hours, four times a year.

Opportunity/brief:

CRANAplus is seeking current Members to join the CRANAplus Membership Nursing & Midwifery Roundtable. The Roundtable includes representatives from each state, the NT and First Peoples representation. The Roundtable lifts the voice of our Membership to inform CRANAplus activities and priorities. It also facilitates communication and key message dissemination for rural and remote health professionals and stakeholders.

Details:

Roundtable representatives will come together quarterly to discuss developments, research, policies, and perspectives on issues important for our workforce and the rural and remote communities they serve.

Skills, knowledge and experience required:

CRANAplus appreciates the Membership of many experienced remote nurses and midwives who currently contribute to this sector. CRANAplus may accept varying history, experience, current skill, and knowledge however, applicants must be working (or have very recently worked) in a remote or rural setting.

Commitment required:

Roundtable representatives will need to be available for a quarterly online meeting (2 hours) and potentially, travel for a face-to-face meeting yearly. Travel costs and $150/day travel allowance will be provided by CRANAplus for any required face-to-face meetings.

Selection process:

Please submit an initial Expression of Interest via the CRANAplus website. Once submitted, our Workforce Support team will be in touch to discuss the opportunity further and outline the selection process including the submission of a 500-word (max) statement on why you would like to join the CRANAplus Nursing & Midwifery Roundtable. Your submission should explain:

- How your networks and professional relationships will enable you to represent the needs of the nursing and midwifery workforce in your region?
- How this opportunity contributes to your professional growth and development?

Further information, such as your current CV, may be requested.
