Wellbeing and Workforce Support Webinars – Privacy Notice

We are committed to protecting your privacy when you attend our webinars.

What this notice covers

This webinar privacy notice sets out how CRANAplus collects, handles, and discloses your personal information when you register for or attend a Wellbeing and Workforce Support webinar.

This Notice should be read together with the CRANAplus Privacy Policy, which explains how CRANAplus manages personal information more broadly.

Information we collect

- When you register or attend a CRANAplus webinar, we may collect your name, email address, and basic demographic information, such as the state or territory you are based in, or your professional role. If you do not provide your name and email address, you cannot register for the event. You can withdraw your registration at any time.
- If you register another person for a webinar, you must get their consent to provide us with their personal information and make them aware of this Privacy Notice.
- Our webinars are delivered using MS Teams and may be recorded. We will let participants know when a webinar is being recorded.
- If you participate in interactive parts of the webinar, the recording may capture your image or audio.
- If you participate in webinar chat or Q&A, your comment may be visible to others during the webinar and published in the webinar recording. Therefore, please do not share personal, sensitive, clinical or identifying information about yourself or another person.

How we use and disclose your personal information

We use your name and email to:

- Provide you with webinar details.
- Provide you with webinar access.
- Facilitate delivery of the webinar.
- Provide de-identified demographic information for reporting to the Department of Health, Disability and Ageing, our funding body.

Depending on the webinar, your name may be visible to other participants.

We may email you after the webinar to:

- Ask for feedback on the webinar.
- Provide you with a webinar recording.
